Boans of Education.—A special meeting of the Board of Education was held at the City Hall on Thursday evening, the President, G. L. Demarest, in the chair. The building committee reported that the Common Council had authorized a loan of $8,500 to complete the two school houses in course of construction in the First and Third wards. A resolution was adopted, authorizing the President and Clerk of the Board to execute contracts for the completion of these school houses. The committee on qualifications reported that Miss Avis May is qualified to teach in the schools of this city, as first assistant, and on motion a certificate was grauted.

DESORDERLY HOUSE.—The occupants of a house in Union

Sistant, and on motion a certificate was granted.

Discreptly Hours — The occupants of a house in Union avenue, near Skiliman street, named Thomas Coral and James Mills, together with their wives, were brought before Justice Boswell yesterday on a charge of keeping a disorderly house. Coral and his wife were sent to the County Penitentiary for sixty days each. Mills and his wife were committed to the cells to await examination on a charge of stealing chickens from the premises of Mr. Bowerhorn, in North Ninth street. A large quantity of hea's feathers were found on the premises of the accused parties, which leads to the supposition that they have participated in some of the henroest robberies during the past winter.

Grand Largeny.—A well dressed colored woman entered the jewelry store of Mr. J. Marsh yesterday forencon, and purchased an accordeon and several articles of jewelry, which she ordered to be sent to a house in South Eighth street, together with the bill. Shortly after she had left the store Mr. Marsh discovered that the woman had managed to purloin a gold watch, valued at $35, and further, that she did not reside at the house where she directed the articles purchased to be taken.

ELOPEMENT—A telegraphic despatch was received in this city a few days since, stating that a man by the name of Jas. B. Ryan, on or about the 18th of March last, eloped with a Miss Hukill, whose parents reside in the vicinity of Steubenville, Ohio. Ryan is a married man, it is said, and has a wife and child living in that place. He is quite a young man, being only about twenty-two years of age, and the girl is only seventeen. They arrived in this city about two weeks ago, and the police, after a diligenty about two weeks ago, and the police, after a diligent search, succeeded in tracing inem to one of our hotels, where they were both employed, the girl as a seamstress and the man as a waiter, and oecupying the relations of man and wife. The father of the girl, day before yeareday, arrived in this city, when the arrest was made, and left yesterday with his daughter and her paramour in charge of officer Bogus.—St. Louis Republican, April 7.

Why is it I Cannot Drink Liquor !—The question is frequently asked why our forefathers, who drank liquor morning, noon and night, were a healthier, happier and more robust race than their descendants, who drink much less. The reason is obvious to us. Cupidity had not then manufactured these poisonous, fiery drinks which are now made and vended all over the country, under the name of brandy, gin, &c., but which really possess neither the smell, taste, nor any other of the qualities of the genuine articles. People loss health and strength by using these deleterious mixtures, and ery out against all alcoholis drinks. As well might a farmer call for the destruction of all dogs because had once worry sheep, while it is known that a good dog is the shepherd's best and most useful friend. It has ever been customary with the best physicians to freely recommend gin in very many complaints, but the great drawback to its use has been the difficulty of procuring a genuine article. This want has been supplied by fix. UDOLPHO WOLPE, of Nos. IS and 22 Beaver street, by the introduction of his Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps, manufactured at his distillery in Holland. Between two and three thousand medical men, of high professional and moral character, have given Mr. Wolfe voluntary testimonials to the purity and medicinal virtues of the aromatic Schiedam schnapps. This article is the purest of the world famous Holland gins, rendered more pleasant to the taste and more beneficial as a a remedial agent, by the great improvement in the distillation of the delicious, aromatic and lack they are timprovement in the distillation of the delicious, aromatic and lack they would save themselves a world of trothic and ill health by always having with thom a bottle of the genity stimulating and invigorating Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps.—[Courler
